

DAWN NILO

Dawn Nilo is a fool, performance artist and teacher working with intelligent absurd naiveté and the imagination to extend the borders of knowledge and performative capacity in art, design and education. Since 2007 she has given over 50 workshops, performances and presentations in art institutions, colleges and schools in North America, Scandinavia and Middle Europe. In 2017 she was nominated for the Swiss performance art award. She has performed or exhibited at institutions such as the Schaulager and the Kunsthalle Basel in Switzerland; the Leopold Museum and Volx/Margarethen Theathre in Vienna Austria; and at the Third International Visual Festival of Patras Greece.

dawnnilo.com

I AM, 2014 performed at the ACT festival Bern, 2014