GERGANA MANTSCHEVA

Gergana Mantscheva is a Swiss-Bulgarian artist born and raised in Sofia. She studied painting at the National Academy of Fine Arts in Sofia and graduated in 2000. Since then she is situated in Solothurn, Switzerland where she graduated a certificate study as a cultural mediator in schools at the University of Applied Sciences and Arts Northwestern Switzerland in 2010. She has partisipated in numerous exhibitions in Switzerland and abroad and since 2008 she teaches also Art at the secondary school in Solothurn. In her paintings and photographs, she treats her own biography. Regularly traveling across her old homeland, she researches and collects photographically as an ethnologist traces and signs of the culture of her own in some way lost generation.

www.mantscheva.ch

Schlösschen Vorderer Bleichenberg Biberist. September 2018