

SUZANNA ASP

Asp (b.1976, Karlstad) is a visual artist, art educator, curator and writer based in Stockholm, Sweden. She identifies as a queer Sami-Swedish person and her work deal with the relationships between the body, voice, text and place. Asp received a Master Degree in Fine Arts from the Finnish Art Academy in Helsinki in 2009 and has exhibited widely in the Nordic countries and abroad since. She works with a variety of media; mixed-media installations, performance, text and sound. She runs the independent publishing company asp publishing focusing on experimental book design and queer feministic theory.

2014 Artist-In-Residence at Skaffell Center for Visual Art, Iceland, 2015 Bodies that Resist, Athens, 2015-17 curator of the exhibition and lectures series Between Black and White - On representation and Identification, Stockholm, 2018-19 curator of Stories Unfold, a project bringing together artists and writers talking about the working conditions in the creative field for women.

www.suzannaasp.com

Stories Unfold A collaborative project running during 2018-19, initiated by Suzanna Asp.